Re: SEC v. Ripple Labs Inc., et al., No. 20 Civ. 10832 (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Netburn:

We write on behalf of Defendants Ripple Labs Inc., Brad Garlinghouse, and Chris Larsen to seek the Court's permission to submit a combined letter motion, of 10 pages or less, by all three Defendants regarding several discovery issues on which we have currently reached an impasse with Plaintiff.

Pursuant to Section II.C of the Court's Individual Practices in Civil Cases, "any party" may, after conferring in good faith in an effort to resolve the discovery dispute, submit an ECF letter-motion "no longer than five pages" explaining the dispute and seeking an informal conference.

We believe that a combined letter from all three Defendants that exceeds five pages but is still below the five-page-per-party limit best serves the interests of judicial economy and makes the most sense given that a number of arguments are relevant for all Defendants (though each Defendant may also raise certain unique points).

We conferred with Plaintiff on this issue on March 11, 2021, and they consent to our request, as long as they will be able to submit a responsive letter of the same number of pages, which is acceptable to Defendants.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Respectfully,
/s/ Joy Guo
